

Rags To Riches Creative Dramatics Classes Registration Form

Welcome Sandy Ridge Students!!

Join Rags To Riches theatre for young audiences for Creative Drama classes at your school. We will explore our imaginations, play theatre games, explore pantomime and movement for the stage, and develop original scenes and characters, and much more more. Students will be exposed to the similarity between adding details to the scenes they bring to life and the details used when they are writing stories. This class is a springboard for encouraging creative thought and developing confidence performing for others, and promoting self-awareness.
